January.

It's cold and dark outside and the world wants to sell us new versions of ourselves.

Top resolutions for the new year include starting a new diet (71%), exercising more (65%) or losing weight (54%).<sup>1</sup> Others include quitting unhealthy habits, starting a new budget, or reading more.

The drive to improve ourselves—to draw closer to being the people God calls us to be—is a vital part of Christianity. It is why we confess each week, and why we take up spiritual practices, such as church attendance, prayer, meditation, and service.

So, too, is grace. The message that God loves us, without us needing to change, or earn it, is one of the most revolutionary parts of the Christian faith. It flies in the face of so many of the messages we receive, especially around this resolution-oriented marketing cycle.

As you go about your January routine, may you find the strength and support you need to keep growing into the person you are striving to become. May you find yourself drawing closer to yourself, your loved ones, and God (and, sure, that new exercise regime or budget limit if you've set your mind to it).

And, may you know that you are fully loved, cherished, and marveled over by God, who created you—just the way you are.

~ Reverend Amelia

COUNCIL CORNER FOR JANUARY

Year-end FCC Council of Ministries meetings usually focus on finances--the stewardship campaign and the budget for the coming year.

This year, at our meetings in November and December we worked on those things, but spent even more time on an exciting new project--converting to solar energy to cover our electricity usage.

We have proposals from several solar energy installation contractors, and our plan is to present a concrete proposal for a solar installation to the Congregation at the Church's Annual Meeting in January. In fact, some generous Church members who support the solar project have made substantial pledges toward the cost of the project should the Congregation support it.

So stay tuned, exciting news coming. Our FCC is on the move, environmentally as in so many other ways!

FROM THE FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Please note that donations given to the church by December 29, 2019, will be recorded and appear on your end of the year giving statement. These statements will be mailed/mailed, according to your preference during January.

For those of you who have requested envelopes, the boxes will be available after December 16th in Fellowship Hall. There are a few extra boxes if someone would like to have envelopes for your donations to the church.

Should you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact me at gini@maine.rr.com or by phone at the church on Monday mornings.

Thanks,

Ministry of Finance

Exciting news from a friend of our church!

This person wishes to give up her car and donate to the church, where the proceeds of the sale will be used amongst the church ministries.

The car is a 2010 Toyota Camry LE with 17,580 miles and in perfect condition but will need snow tires if your going to be driving this winter! We are first offering to the congregation before advertising outside the church. Asking price for church members is $7,500.

Kelley Blue Book listing shows the Camry to be worth $8,000 to $9,000, private sale. If the car does not sell we will advertise outside the church with a price of $8,000.

~~Please call the church office if you are interested and would like to see the car.~~

SOLD

Stewardship Campaign 2020

2020 Pledge Goal - $200,000

$168,000 YTD

More exciting news on the stewardship 2020 campaign!

As of today, we have received 60 pledges which puts us way ahead of last year at this time. Total amount pledged to date is $170,000 or 84% of our goal of $200,000!

Thank you all for making the effort to make a pledge before the end of the year so we can develop a budget for all the ministries in January.

If you have not sent in your pledge or do not really understand what pledging is all about, email the office at fccoffc@gmail.com and request the letter and pledge card. There are also letters and pledge cards on the table just outside the sanctuary doors.

Ministry of Christian Education

KIDS' CHURCH

This December was filled with giving, excitement, and holiday cheer at the Falmouth Congregational Church. The children learned the Christmas story while practicing for their pageant all month long. They had so much fun acting out their roles, picking out their costumes, working on musical numbers, and performing it all for the church at the 5 PM Christmas Eve service.

On December 15th, the kids decorated beautiful Christmas cookies for members of our congregation who can't make it to church to give them some holiday cheer. After church a big group of the congregation of all ages loaded in our Christmas caroling bus for our annual Christmas caroling event hosted by Craig Paige. It was so fun and we are so grateful to have Craig come back and host the caroling every year. What a perfect conclusion to another great year.

Looking forward in the promising year of 2020, the Christian Education Ministry will be throwing the annual Super Bowl Sunday Chili Fundraiser. We will have veggie, beef, and turkey chili that will come with corn bread muffins (we do have gluten free muffins). Chili is priced at $8 for a pint and $15 for a quart. We will be selling the chili on Sunday February 2.

Please get your chili orders in to Kristen Coleman by email at kristen.coleman@maine.edu or put your order down after church in fellowship hall before it sells out! All proceeds go to Christian education.

Thank You,

Kristen Coleman
Christian Education Administrator
kristen.coleman@maine.edu

The Children's ministry and Elena Parr are still in need of volunteers to become "on-call" nursery helpers. Please sign up on the volunteer sheet on the CE bulletin board in Fellowship Hall.

Any questions, please contact, Kristen Coleman,
Christian Education Coordinator at: davinci.experience@gmail.com

CHRISTMAS CAROLING

On December 15th Craig Page and friends organized a caroling charter bus to take members of the church around to different nursing homes and spread holiday cheer. Craig always does a magnificent job keeping the event lively and adding new music each year.

The residents and staff at the nursing home really enjoyed our Christmas caroling. Everyone, young and elder, had a wonderful time! Thank you everyone who helped or participated in the Christmas Caroling and for making it a fun and successful way to celebrate and share the Christmas Spirit.

Ministry of Missions

THANK YOU FOR THE ANGEL GIFTS!

Thank you very much to all the angels who are making Christmas so merry for many in our community! Angels from the Falmouth Congregational Church are giving gifts to 20 children of Falmouth Food Pantry families. In many cases, these angels are providing at least two gifts per child. The gifts have not yet all been handed out, but they will certainly be appreciated when they are!

Thank you also to the Cub Scouts, who are giving personal gifts and cheery hand-written cards to 12 Falmouth senior citizens who are clients of the Food Pantry. These very needy clients would not have a Christmas if the Scouts did not offer to give them one.

FAMILY PROMISE PROGRAM

In the past year and a half, our church served as a Host Congregation for SIX different weeks of this exciting project. We could not have done it without you!

More details will follow, but the next time that our church will be a host congregation is from Sunday evening, January 19, 2020, through Sunday morning, January 26, 2020. Please consider participating in one of these many volunteer opportunities:

- Evening volunteer (6:30 PM – 8:30 PM)
- Overnight and breakfast volunteer (8:00 PM - 7:30 AM)

If you can help, please contact Steve at 333-8780. Thank you!

MANY THANKS FOR ALL THE COTTON SOCKS FOR THE HOMELESS!

On December 8, 2019, many of you brought to church cotton socks, which Pastor Amelia blessed and which will be given to people at the Preble Street Resource Center.

Thank you also for the socks in women's sizes: That was very thoughtful too!

Collecting cotton socks is one of our church's continuing local missions. If you happen to have more socks to donate, there is a collection box in Fellowship Hall. Thank you for your help.

Ministry of Worship and Covenant

Chrismons

During the month of December the Ministry of Worship and Covenant worked on holiday preparations. The Chrismons were taken out of storage and checked prior to decorating the Chrismon tree. Families were contacted and asked to light the Advent candles. Jess kindly ordered Poinsettias. Between this ministry and Called to Care twenty plants were delivered to homebound persons. These are a few of the things our ministry has been doing to prepare for the Christmas season.

In the New Year a new schedule for ushering will be made up. If you would like to volunteer to usher in the regular rotation or as a substitute please contact Larry Perry or Jim Parr.

A new flower chart is up in Fellowship Hall please choose a date(s) to provide flowers for Sunday services.

We invite new members to participate in this very important group of people who support our minister in her work. We help with ushering, communion, supporting activities such as the Chrismons, home communions, finding people to participate with Advent and other parts of the Christian calendar. We meet once a month in the Grant room for a usually short meeting.

Please contact Larry Perry if you have any questions or would like to join us.

CHANCEL FLOWERS

Would you like to provide the chancel flowers for a Sunday? Be the first to choose your date in 2020! Please sign up on the poster in Fellowship Hall. Fill out the information on a Chancel Flower form and place it in the offering plate or leave it in the church office. The office will order the flowers from Skillins unless otherwise specified. You may also supply your own.

Cost of chancel flowers from Skillins is $45.00.

ENVIRONMENTAL AND FUNDRAISING OPPORTUNITY

The Ministry of Facilities raises funds in many ways. We invite you to pick up a green plastic Clynk bag with the FCC logo and fill it with your returnable bottles and cans and then return it to Hannaford. Every dime counts! The bags are located on the table in Fellowship Hall or in the Church Office.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN JOINING THE FCC FAMILY?

HAPPY NEW YEAR

There is something quite wonderful about starting over, isn't there?

Even if it's something as contrived as turning over a new date on the calendar, marking the passages of life and time with a promise to try harder this time has some meaning, purpose, and value.

We just came through the season of Advent, a time of deep reflection and introspection.

We have endured the longest night and come out the other side once again hopeful that the light will return.

We have celebrated the incarnation of God's love in the birth of a child.

The time is right for us to make new promises, renew old commitments that have gone stale, and wipe the slate clean on past transgressions. This isn't merely wishful thinking, nor is it a quick fix to matters we would just as soon forget.

I think there is something deeply spiritual and fundamentally theological about this. Our encounters with the Sacred have always put us in touch with one whose love abounds, whose invitation to become something new is always present, and whose graceful, forgiving spirit has humbled us and instilled within us a desire to do and be better than – well, better than we have been.

Self-reflection and introspection that centers us on both the presence of that graceful Spirit of the Divine and on our own frailty, vulnerability, and shortcomings are gifts that help us make the necessary adjustments in life. And while it may be an arbitrary and contrived mechanism to pretend that every time the calendar changes the world suddenly becomes receptive to considering a new start, but really – who cares?

It works. Just telling ourselves to randomly think about making positive changes whenever we think about it is a way to pretty much guarantee it won't happen. I have a basement full of promises I made to myself: a collection of unfinished businesses that I tell myself "I will get to sometime." There's that stained-glass window that cracked that needs repair; the table saw and router I bought to do my woodworking with when I get to; the hammer dulcimer that wants me to tune it and learn to play it better. Day after day goes by without me once thinking about any of those – or the dozen other – things that sit waiting for me to remember and to create time for them.

So, let it be that every January 1 we evaluate. We itemize and inventory our life and discover something that calls us to new commitments, new growth, new promise and new possibility.

It works. Left to my own devices, I will often think that I should do that – but will almost just as often move on to something else with the promise to get that done some day. I like it that the whole world takes a deep breath together, looks at the changing year, and agrees to make promises.

Will they all be kept?

We know they won't.

But come on – let's do this. Walk into the presence of a loving, forgiving, grace-filled and hopeful Spirit of God – and pause. Breathe. Listen. And then play.

Make a promise. See a future. Accept the invitation to be, to do, to act, to think in a way that opens up new horizons, new futures, new tomorrows. Let possibilities abound. And if you fail at it, at least you hoped. And you will get another shot at it next year. God will still be there. She will embrace every new promise you are willing to try.

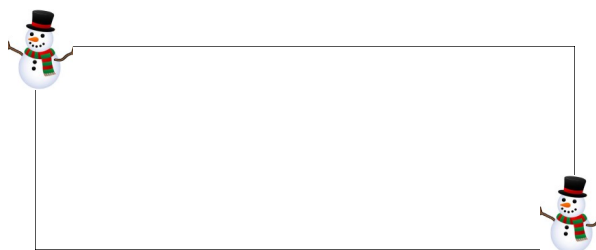

Gentle souls, happy New Year. May this one open up for you roads of possibility and potential as yet unrealized. And may the abiding presence of the sacred fill you with hope and wonder as you continue your meanderings into the Mystic<sup>1</sup>.
